HOW IT WORKS

Our Summer Reading Program offers readers of all ages a variety of ways to stay sharp and beat the "summer slide". This year's theme is "Libraries Rock". Everyone (from tots to teens) can sign up to earn prizes by reading or having someone read to them 15 minutes a day (totaling 100 minutes each week) AND by completing a series of challenges. Participants will be dancing their way to the library all summer long!

KIDS/TEENS

- *Keep track of your minutes
- *Write down the number of books you have read
- *Get your challenge page stamped each week (1 challenge each week) AND earn a prize
- When you complete 6 challenges, you'll earn a coupon for a free ice cone at Tumbledown Cafe

ACTIVITIES (All activities and programs are free of charge)

- *Weekly Drawing
- *Guess What? Drawing
- *See the 2018 Summer Programs at the Gafney Youth Library Guide

WHAT'S WITH THE PAINTED ROCKS?

Earn a prize by finding the special "Libraries Rock" rocks located in local Wakefield businesses. Check off where you found them on the Wakefield Passport listing the participating businesses or take a picture of the rock and bring it to the Gafney Youth Library for a prize. You can, also, e-mail a picture of the rock to the library, gafney@gafneylibrary.org, and we will post it on our Facebook page.
